TABLE OF CONTENTS

From the Editor 11

Abbreviations 13

Introduction 17

Fundamental characteristics of moral social life 29
Moral social life in light of the moral theology of catholic charismatic renewal 30
1. A study of new models of theological ethics from the beginning of the twentieth century until the Second Vatican Council 31
2. The Second Vatican Council and the renewal of Christian ethics 39
3. The social reorientation of moral theology
after the Second Vatican Council 47
4. Civil ethics as the new paradigm of social morals 64
Methodological presuppositions of moral social life 74
1. The specificity of Christian social ethics and its need of rationality 75
2. The biblical prospective on Christian social ethics 83
3. Towards social anthropology 92
The axiological foundation of Christian society 102
1. Fundamental ethical-theological categories 102
2. Preferential option for the poor 113
3. Solidarity as an ethical principle 124
4. Human Rights 138

«Axiological centres» as the supportive structure for the presentation of social morals 151
Economy 152
1. The postulate of dialogue between economy and ethics 153
2. Evaluation of economic systems 165
3. Work and property 186
4. Business ethics and economic development 197
5. Modern economy in the face of crises and new challenges 206
Politics 219
1. Politics as an element of social life 220
2. The need for morals in politics 231
3. Political power 243
Culture 250
1. Moral aspects of the cultural phenomena 250
2. Ethical aspects of education 262
3. The ethics of social communication 273
4. The moral dimension of culture 282

Social morality as the element for the renewal of social life 291
The dangers of social life from an ethicial prospective 291
1. Towards an ethical form of social processes 292
2. Social conflict as an element of social life 300
3. Modern expressions of social violence 313
4. Ethical aspects of fanaticism 324
The ethical project of peace 331
1. New paradigms in the ethics of war and peace 332
2. Ethical aspects of disarmament, pacifism and non-violence 344
3. Conscientious objection and civil disobedience 352
The prophetic dimension of moral social life 359
1. Global dimensions of the social question 360
2. The project of human emancipation 369
3. Towards a new model of society 377

Conclusion 387

Estratto 399

Bibliography 403