

Dr Judyta Dworas-Kulik, PhD is Assistant Professor at the Department of History of the System and Law of the School of Law of the Johan Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland. Member of The Association of Alumni and Friends of the Faculty of Law of the Catholic University of Lublin, the Learned Society of the Johan Paul II Catholic University in Lublin and Member of editorial committee of Annales of Juridical Sciences. Graduate with a Master's degree in law of the Faculty of Law and Administration at the Maria Curie-Skłodowska University. She completed doctoral studies at the Johan Paul II Catholic University of Lublin. In 2016 she obtained a doctorate degrees in law. She finished postgraduated studies on tax and tax law at the at the Faculty of Law, Canon Law and Administration and she also graduated from postgraduate studies on human resource management at the Faculty of Social Sciences of the Johan Paul II Catholic University of Lublin. In 2017-2018 she was practices law in kancelary and at the foundation and was supports people whose rights were violated. From 1 October 2017 employed by the Johan Paul II Catholic University of Lublin. In 2018 - 2019 dr Judyta Dworas-Kulik has completed a research internship at the Faculty of Ivan Franko National University of Lviv twice. She has authored of several scientific publications. The national and international scientific conferences organizer. Member of Selection Boards in competitions about legal knowledge. Dr Judyta Dworas-Kulik has been given the Rector's award for scientific, organizational activities and popularization of science two times. Her is areas of specialization include: history of selected institutions of matrimonial and family law, legal-penal protection these institutions. She also conducts research on selected aspects of banking law and international law , especially maritime law in the twentieth century.