The City of Lublin

Lublin has always been one of Poland's most important cities. Due to its geographical location and history, Lublin has often played the role of a bridge between the East and the West. Interestingly, it also often took the lead at crucial historical moments when Poland's fate hung in balance. In 1569 the so-called Lublin Union was signed here, uniting Poland into a single political entity, thus creating the largest European state of the time. In the final days of World War I, Poland's first independent government (which soon ceded power to Jozef Pilsudski) was founded in Lublin. It was here again that the provisional communist government was installed by the Soviets in July 1944, during the last stages of World War II. Lublin is also considered by some to be the cradle of Solidarity; the avalanche of strikes that in 1980 spread throughout Poland and eventually led to the Gdansk agreements began in Lublin.

Since World War II, Lublin has expanded threefold and today is the largest and most important industrial, commercial and educational centre in eastern Poland. It is no exaggeration to call Lublin a city of universities. At present, Lublin has 5 universities and a few colleges with the total of over 70,000 students, while the population of Lublin is approximately 400,000. If one adds the rich and thriving cultural life that imparts a unique artistic flavour to the atmosphere of Lublin, our city appears to be an ideal place in which to spend a part of your colourful student life.

The John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin (KUL)

The John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin (KUL) – formerly the Catholic University of Lublin – founded in 1918, is one of the oldest universities in Poland and is the only one possessing full state and Church rights.

At present, KUL enrolls around 20,000 students, including approximately 400 foreign students in its various programmes.

The university has a reputation for high standards of education and research, the profile of which is determined by humanistic tradition of the university as well as openness to the needs of a contemporary man.

The university offers a very wide range of Master's and doctoral programmes in the following faculties: the Faculty of Humanities, the Faculty of Social Sciences, the Faculty of Law, Canon Law and Administration, the Faculty of Theology, the Faculty of Philosophy, the Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences, the Collegium of Inter-Faculty Individual Studies in the Humanities, the Off-Campus Faculty of Legal and Economic Sciences in Tomaszów Lubelski and the Off-Campus Faculty of Social Sciences in Stalowa Wola. Most of the academic disciplines have already gained a Certificate of the Quality of Education, i.e. the accreditation of the University Accreditation Commission and redesigned their study programmes in line with European Credit Transfer System.

KUL boasts a School of Polish Language and Culture, which runs highly popular summer and one-year courses for foreigners from all over the world.

The university has ongoing cooperation with over 100 foreign research and academic institutions. KUL has been participating in such European programmes as ERASMUS since 1999/2000 and CEEPUS since 1998/1999. KUL is also a member of many international academic associations and organizations, including International Federation of Catholic Universities (IFCU), European Federation of Catholic Universities (FUCE) and European University Association (EUA).

Due to Lublin's geographical location and its history, KUL has strong ties both with the East and the West. The graduates and the faculty of KUL hold many important positions in social, cultural, ecclesiastical and political life. Among them was Pope John Paul II, who had held the Chair of Ethics in KUL's Faculty of Philosophy for many years.

There are more and more students every year in Lublin so it is strongly advised to come some time in advance in order to find a suitable place.

If you need temporary accommodation, contact the Erasmus Office and you will receive addresses of cheap hostels and hotels.

Arrival

There are several options of coming to Lublin. The most popular is the way through the Warsaw airport "Okęcie" that involves taking a bus or a train directly to Lublin. Another alternative will be a train either directly to Lublin or to Warsaw Central Railway Station with a change for Lublin.

Students can be collected from the bus or railway station in Lublin. They have to inform their 'guardian angels' in advance about the exact time of arrival.

Air Travel

If you come by plane, you will arrive at the International Airport „Okęcie”, Warsaw (10 km/6.25 miles from the city centre). From the airport, you can travel directly to Lublin (approx. 170 km from Warsaw) by taking one of yellow coaches 'Polski Express', which depart from the car park situated right in front of the airport www.polskiexpress.pl/rozklad_jazdy.html (website only in Polish). Just make sure to catch the right bus – connection Warszawa-Lublin. This is a convenient and quite reasonably priced connection to Lublin. The trip takes approximately 3 hours. Buses arrive at the central bus terminal (Dworzec Główny PKS) in Lublin.

Central Railway Station (Warszawa Centralna)

The Central Railway Station is situated in the very heart of Warsaw. In order to get there from the airport you can either take a taxi (price approx. 30 PLN) or bus 175 (bus stop and taxi rank are in front of the airport entrance/exit). All inter-city services arrive at the Central Railway Station. It is also there that you can change for Lublin – there are quite frequent connections: rozklad-pkp.pl The trip takes approximately 2,5 hours.

Living in Lublin

Board

The university cafeteria (Al. Racławickie 14) offers meals (dinners) from 11.30 a.m. – 6.00 p.m. at about 55 EUR per month. You can also buy individual meals (about 3 EUR a meal). There are also many bars and restaurants situated next to the campus.

Local transport

Lublin has a good network of buses and trolleybuses, which connects the city centre (where the campus is actually situated) with all parts of the city. It runs quite frequently until approximately 11.00 p.m. – 11.30 p.m., depending on the line. Besides there are also private buses (Linia prywatna) which run on the busiest connections and are a bit cheaper than regular buses.

Tickets are available at kiosks or from drivers. Tickets must be validated as soon as you get on a bus or a trolleybus. We must warn you that fare dodgers are frequently caught and fined. There is extra fare for luggage. In the case of private buses, fare is to be paid directly to the driver. We recommend buying (except for private buses) a monthly or quarterly pass, which is a very useful and reasonably cheap way of travelling. They are available from the Office of Public Transport at Kraśnicka Street 25 and Przystankowa Street 1.

Before you get a Student Identity Card (Legitymacja studencka), issued at the beginning of your stay at KUL, it is recommended to have an international student's card ISIC that entitles you to benefit from a discount on all means of public transport.

If you plan to travel by night, it is advisable to take a taxi (available throughout the night). During the weekends night buses connect almost every part of the city.

As in other big cities, beware of pickpockets who are most active on means of transport as well as places such as cafés, restaurants, etc.

Taxis

You can pick up a taxi either from a taxi rank or by calling a taxi service (e.g. 0819628, 0819621, 0819622, 0819665). Of course, tariffs vary but it may amount up to approx. 20 ~ 30 PLN within the city.

Post offices/telephones

Post offices are usually open daily from 8.00 a.m. to 7.00 p.m. They are located throughout the city and at the main railway stations. There is also one situated right next to the campus at Łopacińskiego Street 9.

Telephone boxes use cards, which are on sale at kiosks and post offices. To telephone abroad from Poland, dial 00 + the country code. Within Lublin dial 081 and the number you wish to contact.

Banks and money

It is difficult to give a precise estimate of how much money you will need, partly because much depends on your own circumstances and lifestyle. The following suggestions may be helpful:

Accommodation

ca. 90-200 EUR (per month)

Food: ca. 55-75 EUR (per month) in the university cafeteria

Local Transport: ca. 15 EUR (per month)

In order to open a bank account you will need a passport and a Student Identity Card. Most banks are open from 8.00/9.00 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday to Friday.

You can change money in banks or exchange offices (kantory). Changing money in exchange offices might be more advantageous to you as all banks charge commission.

Another possibility is to open a bank account in your home country and use your credit card for withdrawing money in Poland as cash dispensers are at your disposal all around the city. Mastercard and Visa are common in Poland. Remember that your local bank may charge fees for use of cash dispensers in other countries.

Library

The KUL University Library is a library system with a network of 38 (satellite) libraries in the institutes, research centres, and faculties of the University. Students may use a whole range of libraries within the University, that is departmental and institute libraries as well as reading rooms. Materials are also made available through interlibrary loan. Readers can also gain information at the Library about other libraries' collections through the Internet. They can also make use of the Library's CD-ROM databases.

Internet access

Erasmus students have access to the Internet in the computer room in designated hours from Monday to Friday. There is also possibility to use computers in the hallways and in the libraries.

Student life

The KUL Student Government is the primary organizer of all student activities at KUL. The organization's basic aim is to provide students with good quality representation and services which help them to get the most out of their years at the university.

Each year in spring it organizes in cooperation with other student organizations one of the most cultural events in the Lublin Region – Student Cultural Days “Kulturalia”. They last one week and during that time the University teems with lots of cultural events, inter alia, theatre performances, concerts, film marathons, panel discussions, dance performances, martial arts performances, etc.

Apart from “Kulturalia”, the KUL Student Government organizes Open Door Days and Student Organization Fairs, which gather a lot of students as well as potential future students, who are attracted to study at KUL.

Other cultural events organized at KUL include: the Catholic University Youth Forum – an audition of young talented musicians – organized by the Centre for Campus Ministry KUL and orientation programme for freshmen coordinated by the Association of Catholic University Youth, “Unia Młodych.”

In addition, student cultural days are organized by other Lublin universities. These include: “Kozienalia” organized by Marie Curie-Skłodowska University, “Feliniada” organized together by Agricultural University of Lublin and Medical University in Lublin, and “Juwienia” organized by Lublin University of Technology. They are usually held from the end of April till the end of May. Marie Curie-Skłodowska University organizes also “Żakeria” Religious Song Festival.

Another form of student activities is the “Academic Circles”. They bring together students in individual sections and faculties who are interested in furthering their academic interests as well as in taking a deeper role in the life of the faculty through organization of lectures, talks, conferences, and academic sessions. The latter include programmes like the "Ecclesiology Week" (Theology Circle), "Philosophy Week" and "Eutrapelia" (Philosophy Circle), "Legal Week" (Law Students Academic Circle), "Social Days" (Sociology Circle), "Actualia" (Psychology Circle), and "Social Skills Week" (Managerial Psychology Circle). They are all held in the spring semester. At present, there are 34 student circles active at the University, along with a Polish-Spanish Association.

Students interested in developing their interests and talents can choose among various organizations active at KUL. Those with musical or acting talent can choose among the KUL Choir, the Gregorian Schola, or KUL's unique and worldwide famous theatre: Scena Plastyczna (the Visual Stage), under the direction of Leszek Mądzik. Students with artistic interests can get involved with the "Terra" Photography Agency or the Academic Film Studio, which organizes film shows at the University. Those adept at journalism can hone their talents in "Brama Trzeciego Tysiąclecia" (Gateway of the Third Millennium), the journal published by the "Frassatianum" Society. Those who prefer to spend their free time more actively can find a place in KUL's Tourist Club branch of the all-Polish tourist association (PTTK) or in one of the 12 sections (volleyball, handball, soccer, chess, etc.) of AZS, the Polish University Sports Union.

Entertainment

If you are interested in the theatre, we strongly recommend the above-mentioned KUL's theatre: Scena Plastyczna (the Visual Stage). Its performances constitute an original form of visual theatre, without word or story, created by the dramatic continuity of scenes and musical sequences. You can also check out the programmes of other numerous Lublin's theatres.

The main city venue for drama is the Juliusz Osterwa Theatre (Narutowicza Street 17), featuring a wide range of classical and modern plays. Theatre buffs may also be interested in the experimental Gardzienice Centre of Theatrical Practice, one of the most outstanding companies currently performing in Poland. Each of its productions is a whirl of sights and sounds performed barefoot by candlelight with reckless energy and at breakneck speed, accompanied by music and singing by the actors themselves (office: tel. 081 532 98 40, 534 64 20, Grodzka Street 5A). We recommend reservations well in advance). Another must is the programme of the highly acclaimed "Brama Grodzka" Centre, the "NN Theatre". We also recommend visiting the Cultural Centre of Lublin (Peowiaków Street 12, tel. 081 536 03 11), which is the site of such theatre companies as: The "Provisorium" Theatre, The Company Theatre, Lublin Dance Theatre. The Centre also houses the Festival Office of the International Theatrical Confrontations, which are held in Lublin every year in October. Other theatres worth recommending include ITP (Theatre Initiative of KUL Polish Philology students), Musical Theatre and Chamber Theatre.

As for galleries, we recommend the following:

- ✓ Galeria ACK UMCS, Radziszewskiego Street 16, tel. 081 533 32 01

There are so many choices and interesting sights in Lublin that it would be difficult to recommend just a few. However, there are some places that are an absolute must for all visitors.

Old Town – one of the most beautiful in Poland. Its uniqueness lies in its preservation of the original medieval town plan within the confines of its defensive walls. All the old townhouses are distinguished by rich artwork that still preserves its Gothic and Renaissance character.

Apart from great sightseeing value, tourists are attracted by the abundance of stylish cafes, pubs and restaurants.

The Kraków Gate – one of the most well-known landmarks of Lublin – it can be found in hundreds of photographs and drawings. Built in half of XIV century in the Gothic style, it was rebuilt in the XVI century in Renaissance style with a baroque copula. Today, the Gate houses the Historical Museum of Lublin.

The Castle complex – one of the grandest sights in Lublin. The oldest parts of the castle date back to the middle of XIII century. The castle served as a prison until 1954; during the Nazi occupation there were over 80,000 people interned here. Today, the castle houses the extensive Lublin Museum, with over 100,000 artefacts in various permanent exhibitions. However, the most outstanding architectural monument of the Castle complex is

The Holy Trinity Chapel – a unique building in Poland and an exceptionally rare monument in Europe, famous for its unique Russo-Byzantine frescoes from the early 15th century combined with the Gothic style of the Chapel. It is the only example in Poland of this kind of art that has been preserved almost untouched.

The Cathedral – the former Jesuit church dating from the end of the 16th century; it is particularly interesting because of its acoustic vestry as well as grand and stylish interior with baroque wall paintings.

The Museum in Majdanek – a preserved section of the infamous concentration camp organized by the Nazis in 1941–42. Majdanek was the second largest death camp (after Oświęcim-Brzezinka) in the countries of occupied Europe. It operated till liberation in July 1944, and during that period some 360,000 people, representing 51 nationalities from 26 countries, were exterminated. The permanent camp exposition consists of the post-camp objects: the prison fields surrounded with the barbed wire, the guard towers, prisoners' barracks, the gas chambers and the crematorium with the tomb of those murdered in the camp. You can also see documentaries shown in a small cinema.

The city is also an excellent base if you want to travel further and visit other beautiful spots in the Lublin region. The wide choices run from Kazimierz Dolny – an architectural and cultural pearl of the region; Kozłówka with the beautiful Zamoyski Palace Complex housing, among others, a unique gallery featuring socialist-realist “art”; Nałęczów – a well-known, beautifully situated spa; to Zamość, whose Old Town is included on the UNESCO World Heritage list.
