

XI AUTUMN
CONFERENCE IN LOGIC
ADVANCES IN PHILOSOPHICAL LOGIC

NOVEMBER 29-30, 2019

philosophy.kul.pl/logic

The conference will take place in Lublin at the Catholic University of Lublin (Poland). Contributions are welcome from the broadly understood philosophical logic including (not exclusively): various versions of modal, temporal, epistemic, and deontic logic; constructive logics; relevance and other sub-classical logics; many-valued logics; logics of conditionals; quantum logic; decision theory, logics of belief change, and formal epistemology.
